JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff, JAY RALSTON, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated alleges as 2 follows:

3 I.

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. This is an action pursuant to the Truth in Lending Act (“TILA”), 15 U.S.C. §§1601, et
6 seq., California’s Unfair Competition Law (“UCL”), Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq., and other
7 statutory and common law in effect. Plaintiff JAY RALSTON, individually, and on behalf of all others
8 similarly situated, brings this action against MORTGAGE INVESTORS GROUP, INC., MORTGAGE
9 INVESTORS GROUP, a general partnership, and DOES 1-10 (collectively “Defendants”), based, in 10 part, on Defendants’ failure to clearly and conspicuously disclose to Plaintiff and the Class Members, in 11 Defendants’ Option Adjustable Rate Mortgage (“ARM”) loan documents, and in the required disclosure
12 statements, accompanying the loans, (i) the actual interest rate on the note(s) (12 C.F.R. § 226.17); (ii)
13 that payments on the notes at the teaser rate will result in negative amortization and that the principal
14 balance will increase (12 C.F.R. § 226.19); and (iii) that the initial interest rate provided was discounted
15 and does not reflect the actual interest that Plaintiff and Class members would be paying on the Note(s).

16
17 II.

18 THE PARTIES

20 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

21 13. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 15 U.S.C §§ 1601 et seq. and 28
22 U.S.C. § 1331.

23 14. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the parties in this action by the fact that
24 Defendants are either individuals who reside in this District within California or are corporations duly 25 licenced to do business in California.

26 15. Venue is proper within this District and Division pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(b) because 27 a substantial part of the events and omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, and 28 because there is personal jurisdiction in this district over the named Defendants because they regularly

1 conduct business in this judicial district.

2 IV.

3 FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

4 16. MORTGAGE INVESTORS GROUP, INC., and MORTGAGE INVESTORS GROUP, a
5 general partnership ("MIG") sell a variety of home loans which include: conventional fixed rate,
6 conventional ARM, 2nd mortgage fixed, home equity lines of credit, FHA, VA, and non-conforming
7 loans. The ARM or adjustable rate mortgages are the loans that are the subject of this Complaint.

8 17. The instant action arises out of residential mortgage loan transactions in which 9 Defendants failed to disclose pertinent information in a clear and conspicuous manner to Plaintiff and 10 the Class members, in writing, as required by law.

11 18. This action also concerns Defendants' unlawful, fraudulent and unfair business acts or 12 practices. Defendants engaged in a campaign of deceptive conduct and concealment aimed at 13 maximizing the number of consumers who would accept this type of loan in order to maximize 14 Defendants' profits, even as Defendants knew their conduct would cause many of these consumers to 15 lose their homes through foreclosure.

16 19. Plaintiff, along with thousands of other similarly situated consumers, were sold an Option
17 ARM home loan by Defendants. The Option ARM loan sold to Plaintiff and the Class is a deceptively
18 devised financial product. The loan has a variable rate feature with payment caps. The product was 19 sold based on the promise of a low, fixed interest rate, when in fact Plaintiff and the Class members
20 were charged a different, much greater interest rate than promised. Further, Defendants disguised from 21 Plaintiff the Class members the fact that Defendants' Option ARM loan was designed to, and did, cause
22 negative amortization to occur. Further still, once lured into these loans, consumers cannot easily
23 extricate themselves from these loans because Defendants included a stiff and onerous prepayment
24 penalty provision making it extremely difficult to extricate themselves from the loans.

25 20. The Option ARM loan Defendants sold to Plaintiff violates the Truth In Lending Act
26 (TILA). TILA is supposed to protect consumers; it mandates certain disclosures be made by lenders to 27 borrowers concerning the terms and conditions of their home loans. Defendants failed to make these 28 disclosures in connection with the Option ARM loan sold to Plaintiff and the Class.

1           21.     At all times relevant, Defendants promoted their Option ARM loan product to 2 consumers, including Plaintiff, in a false or deceptive manner. Defendants promoted to the general
3 public a loan which would provide a very low, fixed interest rate for a period of three (3) to five (5)
4 years and no negative amortization. Defendants used this “teaser” rate to lure Plaintiff into purchasing
5 Defendants’ Option ARM loan product. However, the low fixed rate was illusory, a false promise.
6 Plaintiff and others similarly situated did not receive the benefit of the low rate promised to them. Once
7 signed on to Defendants’ loan, the interest rate applied to Plaintiff’s and Class members’ loans was 8 immediately and significantly increased.

9           22.     Plaintiff and others similarly situated were consumers who applied for a mortgage loan
10 through Defendants. During the loan application process, in each case, Defendants promoted,
11 advertised, and informed Plaintiff and the Class members that in accepting these loan terms, Plaintiff
12 would be able to lower their mortgage payment and save money. Defendants initiated this scheme in 13 order to maximize the amount of the loans issued to consumers and to maximize Defendants’ profits.

14           23.     Based on the Defendants’ representations, and the conduct alleged herein, Plaintiff and 15 Class members agreed to finance their primary residence through Defendants’ Option ARM loan.
16 Plaintiff and Class members were told they were being sold a home loan with a low interest rate of 17 between 1% and 3% (the “teaser” rate), and that the interest rate was fixed for the first three (3) to five 18 (5) years of the loan. Defendants also informed Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was lead to believe, that if they 19 made payments based on the promised low interest rate, which were the payments reflected in the 20 written payment schedule provided to them by Defendants, the loan was a no negative amortization
21 home loan. Plaintiff’s payments were to be applied to their principal loan balances as well as to interest.
22

23           24.     After, the purported three (3) to five (5) year fixed interest period, Plaintiff and the Class
24 members reasonably believed, based on the representations contained in the documents Defendants
25 provided to Plaintiff and the Class members, that they would be able to refinance their loan and get a
26 new loan before their scheduled payments increased. However, the payment schedule provided by 27 Defendants failed to disclose, and by omission failed to inform, these consumers that due to the negative
28 amortization that was purposefully built into these loans, Plaintiff and the Class members would be

1 unable to refinance their homes as there would be little or no equity left to refinance.

2       25. Plaintiff believed these facts to be true because that is what the Defendants wanted
3 consumers to believe. Defendants aggressively marketed their product as a fixed, low interest home
4 loan. Defendants knew that if marketed in such a manner, their Option ARM loan product would be a
5 hugely popular and profitable product for them. Defendants also knew, however, that they were 6 marketing their product in a false and deceptive manner. While Defendants trumpeted their low, fixed
7 rate loans to the public, Defendants knew their promise of low, fixed interest was illusory.

8       26. In fact, Defendants' Option ARM loan possessed a low, fixed payment but not a low,
9 fixed interest rate. Unbeknownst to Plaintiff and Class members, the actual interest rate they were 10 charged on their loans was not fixed, was not the low teaser interest rate stated in the loan
11 documentation and was in fact considerably higher than going market rates. And, after purchasing
12 Defendants' Option ARM loan product, Plaintiff and Class members did not actually receive the benefit 13 of the low, teaser rate at all in some cases, or at best, received that rate for only a single month.
14 Immediately, thereafter, Defendants in every instance and for every loan, increased the interest rate they 15 charged consumers. The now-increased interest charges incurred by Plaintiff and Class members over 16 and above the fixed interest payment rate were added to the principal balance on their home loans in 17 ever increasing increments, substantially reducing the equity in these borrowers' homes.

18       27. In stark contrast to this reality, Defendants, through the standardized loan contracts they 19 created and supplied to Plaintiff and the Class, Defendants stated that negative amortization was only a
20 possibility and would occur only if the payments were not sufficient. Defendants concealed and failed
21 to disclose the fact that the loan as presented and designed, in fact, guaranteed negative amortization.
22 Defendants failed to disclose and omitted the objectively material fact that negative amortization would 23 occur if the consumer followed the payment schedule set forth by Defendants in the loan documents.
24 This information was objectively material and necessary for consumers to make an informed decision
25 because this would have revealed that the loan's principal balance would increase if the payment
26 schedule was followed, thereby rendering it impossible to refinance the loan at or around the time the 27 prepayment penalty expired and/or by the time the interest and payment rates re-set. In this respect,
28 Defendants utterly failed to place any warning on the Truth and Lending Disclosure Form about

1 negative amortization.

2 28. At all times relevant, once Plaintiff and the Class members accepted Defendants' Option
3 ARM loan contract, they had no viable option by which to extricate themselves from these loan because 4 a substantial majority of these Option ARM loan agreements included a draconian pre-payment penalty
5 for a period of up to three years.

6 29. The Option ARM loans sold by Defendants all have the following uniform 7 characteristics:

- 8 (a) There is an initial low interest rate or "teaser" rate that was used to entice the 9 Plaintiff into entering into the loan. The rate offered was typically 1%-3%;
- 10 (b) The loan has with it a corresponding low payment schedule. The marketing of the 11 loan with the above teaser was intended to misleadingly portray to consumers that 12 the low payments for the first three (3) to five (5) years were a direct result of the 13 low interest rate being offered;
- 14 (c) The initial payments in the required disclosures were equal to the low interest rate
15 being offered. The purpose was to assure that if someone were to calculate what 16 the payment would be at the low offered interest rate, it corresponded to the 17 payment schedule. This portrayal was intended to further mislead consumers into 18 believing that the payments were enough to cover all principal and interest;
- 19 (d) The payment has a capped annual increase on the payment amount; and
- 20 (e) And for a substantial number of the loans, the loans included a prepayment 21 penalty preventing consumers from securing a new loan for a period of up to three 22 (3) years.

23 30. Defendants uniformly failed to disclose and by omission failed inform consumers,
24 including Plaintiff and the Class members, in a clear and conspicuous manner that the fixed "teaser" rate
25 offered by Defendants was actually never applied to their loans, or, at best, was only applied for thirty 26 (30) days. Thereafter, the true interest charged on the loans was significantly higher than the promised, 27 advertised rate.

28 31. Defendants uniformly failed to disclose and by omission failed to inform consumers,

1 including Plaintiff and the Class members, that the payments set forth in Defendants' schedule of
2 payments were insufficient to cover the actual charges and that this was, in fact, a loan that would cause
3 the Plaintiff and the Class members to lose the equity they have in their home.

4 32. Defendants uniformly failed to disclose and by omission failed to inform consumers,
5 including Plaintiff and the Class members, that when the principal balance increased to a certain level,
6 they would no longer have the option of making the fixed interest payment amount.

7 33. Disclosing whether a payment will result in negative amortization is of critical
8 importance to consumers. If the disclosed payment rate is insufficient to pay both principle and interest,
9 one of the consequences of negative amortization is a loss of equity. Defendants are and at all times
10 relevant hereto have been aware that clear and conspicuous disclosure of the actual interest rate and a 11 payment rate sufficient to avoid negative amortization and the concomitant loss of equity is extremely 12 important material information.

13 34. At all times relevant, Defendants, and each of them, knew or should have known, or were 14 reckless in not knowing, that: (i) the payment rate provided to Plaintiff and the Class members was 15 insufficient to pay both interest and principle; (ii) that negative amortization was substantially certain to 16 occur if Plaintiff and the Class members made payments according to the payment schedule provided by 17 Defendants; and (iii) that loss of equity and/or loss of Plaintiff's and the Class members' residence was 18 substantially certain to occur if Plaintiff and the Class members made payments according to the 19 payment schedule provided by Defendants.

20 35. In spite of its knowledge, Defendants marketed its ARM loans as product that would 21 provide Plaintiff and the Class members with a low interest rate for the first three (3) to five (5) years of 22 the loan, and at all times relevant, failed to disclose and/or concealed by making partial representations
23 of material facts when Defendants had exclusive knowledge of material facts that negative amortization
24 was certain to occur. This concealed and omitted information was not known to Plaintiff and the Class
25 members and which, at all times relevant, Defendants failed to disclose and/or actively concealed by
26 making such statements and partial, misleading representations to Plaintiff and all others similarly
27 situated. Because the ARM loans did not provide a low interest rate for the first three (3) to five (5)
28 years of the Note and the payment rate disclosed by Defendants was insufficient to pay both principle

1 and interest, negative amortization occurred.

2 36. The true facts about Defendants' ARM loans is that they do not provide the low interest
3 rate promised, and are certain to result in negative amortization.

4 37. Disclosure of a payment rate that is sufficient to pay both principle and interest on the 5 loans is of critical importance consumers. If the disclosed payment rate is insufficient to pay both 6 principle and interest, one of the consequences is that negative amortization or loss of equity will occur.
7 Defendants are and at all times relevant hereto have been aware that the ability of the disclosed payment
8 rate to pay both principle and interest so as to avoid negative amortization is one of the most important 9 terms of a loan.

10 38. To this day, Defendants continue to conceal material information from consumers, and 11 the public, that: (i) the payment rate provided to Plaintiff and the Class members is and was insufficient
12 to pay both principle and interest; (ii) if the disclosed payment schedule is followed, Plaintiff and the 13 Class members will suffer negative amortization; and (ii) loss of equity and/or possession of the 14 property is substantially certain to occur if the disclosed payment schedule is followed. Nevertheless,
15 Defendants have refused to clearly and conspicuously disclose to Plaintiff and the Class members the 16 existence of this important material information and the injury caused thereby, including but not limited
17 to the loss of equity.

18 39. In the end, the harm caused by Defendants' failures to disclose and omissions grossly 19 outweighs any benefit that could be attributed to them.

20 40. Knowing the truth and motivated by profit and market share, Defendants have knowingly
21 and willfully engaged in the acts and/or omissions to mislead and/or deceive Plaintiff and others 22 similarly situated.

23 41. The ARM loans have resulted and will continue to result in significant loss and damage
24 to Plaintiff and the Class Members, including but not limited to the loss of equity these consumers have 25 or had in their homes.

26 42. The facts which Defendants misrepresented and concealed, as alleged in the preceding
27 paragraphs, were material to the decisions about whether to purchase the ARM loans in that Plaintiff
28 and others similarly situated would not have purchased these loans but for Defendants' unlawful, unfair,

1 fraudulent and/or deceptive acts and/or practices as alleged herein.

2 43. Defendants engaged in the unlawful, unfair, fraudulent, untrue and/or deceptive
3 marketing scheme to induce consumers to purchase their ARM loans.

4 44. Defendants' unlawful, unfair, fraudulent, untrue and/or deceptive acts and/or practices
5 were committed with willful and wanton disregard for whether or not Plaintiff or others similarly
6 situated would, in fact, receive a home loan that would actually provide the low interest and payment
7 rate, as promised, for the first three (3) to five (5) years of the loan that is sufficient to pay both principle
8 and interest.

9 45. Upon information and belief and at all times relevant, Defendants possessed full
10 knowledge and information concerning the above facts about the ARM loans, and otherwise marketed
11 and sold these ARM loans throughout the United States, including the State of California.

13 V.

14 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

15 46. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself, and on behalf of all others similarly
16 situated (the "Class") pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, Rules 23(a), and 23(b), and the case
17 law thereunder. The classes Plaintiff seeks to represent are defined as follows:

18 The California Class: All individuals who, within the four year period
19 preceding the filing of Plaintiff's Complaint through the date notice is 20 mailed to the Class, received an Option ARM loan through Defendants on 21 their primary residence located in the State of California. Excluded from the California Class are Defendants' employees, officers, directors, agents, representatives, and their family members; and

22 The National Class: All individuals in the United States of America who,
23 within the four year period preceding the filing of Plaintiff's Complaint
24 through the date notice is mailed to the Class, received an Option ARM
25 loan through Defendants on their primary residence located in the United States of America. Excluded from the National Class are Defendants' employees, officers, directors, agents, representatives, and their family members.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 An appropriate sub-Class exists for the following Class Members:

2 All individuals in the United States of America who, within the three year
3 period preceding the filing of Plaintiff's Complaint through the date notice
4 is mailed to the Class, received an Option ARM loan through Defendants
5 on their primary residence located in the United States of America.
6 Excluded from the National sub-Class are Defendants' employees,
7 officers, directors, agents, representatives, and their family members.

8 Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or otherwise alter the Class definitions presented to the 9 Court at the appropriate time, or propose or eliminate sub-Classes, in response to facts learned through 10 discovery, legal arguments advanced by Defendants or otherwise.

11 47. Numerosity: The Class is so numerous that the individual joinder of all members is 12 impracticable under the circumstances of this case. While the exact number of Class members is 13 unknown at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that the entire Class or Classes consist of 14 approximately tens of thousands of members.

15 48. Commonality: Common questions of law or fact are shared by the Class members. This 16 action is suitable for class treatment because these common questions of fact and law predominate over 17 any individual issues. Such common questions include, but are not limited to, the following:

- 18 (a) Whether Defendants' acts and practices violate the Truth in Lending Act;
- 19 (b) Whether Defendants' conduct violated 12 C.F.R. § 226.17;
- 20 (c) Whether Defendants' conduct violated 12 C.F.R. § 226.19;
- 21 (d) Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices aimed at deceiving
22 Plaintiff and the Class members before and during the loan application process;
- 23 (e) Whether Defendants, by and through their officers, employees, and agents failed 24 to disclose that the interest rate actually charged on these loans was higher than 25 the rate represented and promised to Plaintiff and the Class members;
- 26 (f) Whether Defendants, by and through their officers, employees and agents 27 concealed, omitted and/or otherwise failed to disclose information they were 28 mandated to disclose under TILA;
- (g) Whether Defendants failed to disclose the true variable nature of interest rates on adjustable rate mortgage loans and adjustable rate home equity loans;

- 1 (h) Whether Defendants failed to properly disclose the process by which negative
2 amortization occurs, ultimately resulting in the recasting of the payment structure
3 over the remaining lifetime of the loans;
- 4 (i) Whether Defendants' failure to apply Plaintiff's and the Class members'
5 payments to principal as promised in the form Notes constitutes a breach of 6 contract, including a breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing;
- 7 (j) Whether Defendants' conduct in immediately raising the interest rate on 8 consumers' loans so that no payments were made to the principal balance 9 constitutes breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing;
- 10 (k) Whether Defendants' marketing plan and scheme misleadingly portrayed or 11 implied that these loans were fixed rate loans, when Defendants knew that only 12 the periodic payments were fixed (for a time) but that interest rates were not, in 13 fact, "fixed;"
- 14 (l) Whether the terms and conditions of Defendants' Option ARM home loan are 15 unconscionable;
- 16 (m) Whether Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to damages;
- 17 (n) Whether Plaintiff and the Class members are entitled to punitive damages; and
- 18 (o) Whether Plaintiff and the Class members are entitled to rescission.

19 49. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the Class members. Plaintiff
20 and the other Class members were subjected to the same kind of unlawful conduct and the claims of 21 Plaintiff and the other Class members are based on the same legal theories.

22 50. Adequacy: Plaintiff is an adequate representative of the Class because his interests do
23 not conflict with the interests of the other members of the Class Plaintiff seeks to represent. Plaintiff has 24 retained counsel competent and experienced in complex class action litigation and Plaintiff intends on 25 prosecuting this action vigorously. The interests of members of the Class will be fairly and adequately
26 protected by Plaintiff and his counsel.

27 51. Ascertainable Class: The proposed Classes are ascertainable in that the members can be 28 identified and located using information contained in Defendants' mortgage lending records.

1           52.     This case is brought and can be maintained as a class action under Rule 23(b)(1), 2 23(b)(2), and 23(b)(3):

- 3           (a)     Risk of Inconsistent Judgments: The unlawful acts and practices of Defendants, as 4                   alleged herein, constitute a course of conduct common to Plaintiff and each Class
5                   member. Prosecution of separate actions by individual Class members would create a
6                   risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications which would establish incompatible
7                   standards of conduct for Defendants and/or substantially impair or impede the ability of 8                   individual Class members to protect their interests;
- 9           (b)     Injunctive and/or Declaratory Relief to the Class is Appropriate: Defendants, and each of 10                   them, have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby
11                   making final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the Class 12                   as a whole appropriate; and
- 13           (c)     Predominant Questions of Law or Fact: Questions of law or fact common to the Class
14                   members, including those identified above, predominate over questions affecting only
15                   individual Class members (if any), and a class action is superior to other available
16                   methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. Class action treatment
17                   will allow a large number of similarly situated consumers to prosecute their common
18                   claims in a single forum, simultaneously, efficiently, and without the unnecessary
19                   duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions would require.
20                   Further, an important public interest will be served by addressing the matter as a class
21                   action. The cost to the court system of adjudicating each such individual lawsuit would 22                   be substantial.

1 VI.

2 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

3 Violations of Truth in Lending Laws, 15 U.S.C. §1601, *et seq.

4 (Against All Defendants)

5 A. Defendants' Failure to Clearly and Conspicuously Disclosure A Single APR
 6 Violates Truth in Lending Laws

7 53. 15 U.S.C. § 1638(a)(4) requires lenders to disclose only one annual percentage rate
 8 (“APR”) and not an additional APR that is only applicable for the first 30 days of a loan.

9 54. The Federal Reserve Board’s (“FRB”) Commentary to 12 C.F.R § 226.(17)(C)-6 requires
 10 that the APR must “reflect a composite annual percentage rate based on the initial rate for as long as it is 11 charged and, for the remainder of the term, the rate that would have been applied using the index or 12 formula at the time of consummation.”

13 55. 15 U.S.C. § 1638(a)(8) and 12 C.F.R § 226.18(e) also requires lenders to provide a 14 descriptive explanation of the APR.

15 56. 12 C.F.R .§ 226.18 (e) defines “ APR” as the cost of credit expressed as a yearly rate.

16 57. 12 C.F.R. § 226.17 and 12 C.F.R. § 226.19 requires lenders to make disclosures
 17 concerning the APR in a clear and conspicuous manner and a misleading disclosure is as much a 18 violation of TILA as a failure to disclose at all.

19 58. In addition, the FRB’s Commentary § 226.17(a)(1)-1 provides that TILA’s clear and 20 conspicuous requirement applies to the disclosure and explanation of the cost of the loan as an APR, and 21 where there is a contradiction between the TILDS and other information provided to the borrower, the 22 disclosure is unclear.

23 59. At all times relevant during the liability period, Defendants provided Plaintiff and the 24 Class members with Notes that state, at ¶ 2 (A), “I will pay interest at a yearly rate of 1.000%.”
 25 However, in the TILDS , in the box entitled “ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE” it describes the APR as 26 “[t]he cost of your credit as a yearly rate” and then lists an APR of “5.756%.”

27 60. At all times relevant during the liability period, Defendants violated § 226.17(a)(1)-1 by 28 listing two completely different APRs in the loan documents. In particular, for Mr. Ralston, the TILDS

1 lists an APR of 5.756%. However, the Note lists an APR of “1.000%.” Thus, the “1.000%” APR
 2 stated in the Note contradicts the “5.756%” APR Defendants stated in the TILDS.

3 61. At all times relevant during the liability period, Defendants failed to clearly and 4 conspicuously explain in the Note or TILDS that the low APR (the same APR upon which Defendants
 5 base the written payment schedule provided to Plaintiff) was only offered for the first thirty (30) days of 6 the loan.

7 62. At all times relevant during the liability period, Defendants also failed to clearly,
 8 conspicuously and accurately disclose the APR that it charged Plaintiff and the Class members’ on their
 9 loans. Defendants also failed to disclose, and by omission, failed to inform Plaintiff and the Class
 10 members that the APR listed in the TILDS was not the APR used to determine the first five years of 11 payments listed in the very same TILDS; rather, Defendants listed payment amounts for the first five 12 years of the loan based on the APR listed in the Note which was correct for only thirty days.

13 63. At all times relevant during the liability period, Defendants created and caused the 14 contradiction in the loan documents by purposefully disclosing two different APR’s in the loan
 15 documents it provided to Plaintiff and the Class members.

16 B. Defendants' Failure to Clearly and Conspicuously Disclose That the Payment
 17 Schedules Are Not Based on the APR Stated in the TILDS Violates TILA

18 64. 12 C.F.R. § 226.17 and 12 C.F.R. § 226.19 require the lender to make disclosures
 19 concerning the annual interest rate and payments in a clear and conspicuous manner. Further, a 20 misleading disclosure is as much a violation of TILA as a failure to disclose at all.

21 65. As for Plaintiff and the Class members Option ARM loans, Defendants violated 12
 22 C.F.R. § 226.17 and 12 C.F.R. § 226.19 in that they failed to clearly and conspicuously disclose the 23 annual interest rate upon which the payments listed in the TILDS are based.

24 66. The scheduled payment amounts and APR listed in the Note and TILDS for each of the 25 subject loans are unclear and inconspicuous. In fact, the payment amounts for the first three to five 26 years are not based on the APR listed in the TILDS but instead, were based upon an APR listed in the 27 Note that existed for only thirty (30)days.

28 ///

1           67. At all times relevant, Defendants knowingly and intentionally included in each of the 2 TILDS a schedule of payments which was not based upon the interest rate listed in these same
3 documents. Defendants' failure to clearly and conspicuously disclose the payment amounts due based 4 on the listed APR was, and is, deceptive.

5           68. Further, in addition to Defendants' failure to disclose in the Note and the TILDS that the 6 payments listed were not based upon the APR listed, Defendants knowingly and intentionally expressly
7 and/or impliedly represented in the loan documents that the payments would be applied to both principal
8 and interest. However, in truth, if Plaintiff followed the payment schedule provided by Defendants, the 9 payments were guaranteed to be insufficient to pay the principal and interest on the loan.

10           69. At all times relevant, Defendants failed to clearly and conspicuously disclose to Plaintiff
11 and the Class members that if they made payments according to the payment schedule set forth in the 12 TILDS, that negative amortization was not just a mere possibility, it was an absolute certainty.

13           70. At all times relevant, Defendants purposefully and intentionally failed to disclose to 14 Plaintiff, and all others similarly situated, the annual interest rate upon which the payment schedule was 15 based in order to mislead and deceive Plaintiff and Class members into believing that they would be 16 getting a loan with a low fixed payment rate that would be sufficient to pay both interest and principal.

17           71. At all times relevant, the payment amount provided by Defendants was intended to and 18 did deceive consumers into falsely believing they would, in fact, receive the low interest rate upon
19 which the payment schedule is based. While the Note states the amount of Plaintiff's initial monthly
20 payment, however, the initial monthly payment amounts stated in the Note and TILDS are not, in 21 anyway related to the interest rate listed in the Note(s) and TILDS.

22           72. Defendants employed the aforementioned bait-and-switch tactics in a common and 23 uniform class-wide basis. In particular, had Defendants clearly and conspicuously disclosed a payment 24 amount sufficient to cover both principle and interest, the payment amounts would have to have been 25 almost double the payment amounts listed.

26           73. The TILDS are also deceptive for much the same reason. The TILDS list a schedule of 27 payments, yet for up to the five years the listed payment amounts have no relation to, and are also not 28 based on the annual interest rate listed in the TILDS.

74. At all times relevant, Defendants failed to clearly, conspicuously, and accurately disclose a payment amount that corresponds to the APR being charged on the loan and that was sufficient to pay the true costs of the loan. Plaintiff and the Class members reasonably believed that if they made the payments according to Defendants' payment schedule, the payments would, in fact, be paying off the loan. However, the true fact is that the payment amounts stated in Defendants' payment schedule did not include any principal on the loans at all and only covered a portion of the interest Defendants were charging on these loans.

75. Official Staff Commentary to 12 C.F.R. § 226.17(a)(1) states that "this standard requires that disclosures be in a reasonably understandable form. For example, while the regulation requires no mathematical progression or format, the disclosures must be presented in a way that does not obscure the relationship of the terms to each other..."

76. At all times relevant, Defendants' Option ARM loans violated 12 C.F.R. § 226.17(a)(1) in that the relationship between the payments, for up to the first five years of the loans, bear no relationship to the APR listed in the TILDS. Therefore, as a direct and proximate result, the form of disclosure used by Defendants obscured the relationship between the APR listed in the Note(s) and the APR listed in the TILDS and the payment schedule.

C. Defendants' Failure to Clearly and Conspicuously Disclose Negative Amortization Violates the Truth in Lending Laws

77. 12 C.F.R. § 226.19 sets forth additional specific disclosure requirements for residential home loans:

§ 226.19. Certain residential mortgage and variable-rate transactions. . . .

(b) Certain variable-rate transactions. If the annual percentage rate may increase after consummation in a transaction secured by the consumer's principal dwelling with a term greater than one year, the following disclosures must be provided at the time an application form is provided or before the consumer pays a non-refundable fee, whichever is earlier. . .

(vii) Any rules relating to changes in the index, interest rate, payment

amount, and outstanding loan balance including, for example, an explanation of interest rate or payment limitations, negative amortization, and interest rate carryover. (Emphasis added.)

78. The negative amortization disclosure is required and must be made clearly and conspicuously, and done in a manner that does not obscure its significance. The disclosure must state whether the loan and payments established under the terms dictated by the Defendants is a negative amortizing loan.

79. In 1995, and continuing each time new Official Staff Commentary was issued, the Federal Reserve Board made clear that when the loan was a variable rate loan with payment caps, such as those that are the subject of this lawsuit, that the disclosure requires a definitive statement about negative amortization:

12 CFR Part 226

[Regulation Z; Docket No. R-0863]

Monday, April 3, 1995

AGENCY: Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

ACTION: Final rule; official staff interpretation.

“For the program that gives the borrower an option to cap monthly payments, the creditor must fully disclose the rules relating to the payment cap option, including the effects of exercising it (such as negative amortization occurs and that the principal balance will increase)...” (Found at C.F.R. § 226.19)

80. At all times relevant, statutory and common law in effect make it unlawful for a lender, such as Defendants, to fail to comply with the Federal Reserve Board's Official Staff Commentary as well as Regulation Z and TILA.

81. Defendants sold Plaintiff and the Class members Option ARM loans which have a variable rate feature with payment caps. Defendants failed to include any reference in the TILDS or in the Note(s) that negative amortization would occur if Plaintiff and the Class members followed the

1 payment schedule provided by Defendants.

2 82. In fact, the only place in the Note where Defendants even inferentially reference negative
3 amortization caused Plaintiff and all other similarly situated reasonable persons to believe that negative
4 amortization is only a mere possibility, rather than an absolute certainty. In fact, these loans were 5 designed in such a way so as to make negative amortization an absolute certainty. And, even when a
6 separate explanation was provided, Defendants omitted the important material fact that these loans and 7 payment schedules would, in fact, guarantee negative amortization.

8 83. Defendants' statements in the Note(s), at ¶ 3(C), "[i]f the Minimum Payment is not 9 sufficient to cover the amount of the interest due then negative amortization will occur," and, ¶ 3(E)
10 "my Minimum Payment could be less than or greater than the amount of the interest portion of the 11 monthly payment that would be sufficient to repay the unpaid Principal I owe at the monthly payment
12 date in full on the Maturity Date in substantially equal payments..." were half-truths and did not alert or 13 inform Plaintiff that the payment schedule provided by Defendants would absolutely guarantee that 14 negative amortization was going to occur on these loans. Rather, Defendants made it appear that as long
15 as the payments were made according to the schedule listed in the TILDS, that there would be no
16 negative amortization.

17 84. At all times relevant, Defendants' statement in the Note, TILDS, and any other 18 disclosures they provided, described negative amortization as only a mere possibility, and therefore was 19 misleading and deceptive. In fact, Defendants' Option ARM loan was designed in such a way as to 20 guarantee negative amortization. TILA demands more than a statement that the payment could be less,
21 or "may" be less, when Defendants knew that the payments were less, and would always be less, than 22 the full amount required to pay both principle and interest.

23 D. Defendants' Failure to Clearly and Conspicuously Disclose The Legal Obligation
24 Violates Truth in Lending Laws

25 85. 12 C.F.R. § 226.17(c)(1) requires that "[t]he disclosures shall reflect the terms of the 26 legal obligation between the parties."

27 86. Official binding staff commentary on 12 C.F.R. § 226.17(c)(1) requires that: "[t]he 28 disclosures shall reflect the credit terms to which the parties are legally bound as of the outset of the

1 transaction. In the case of disclosures required under § 226.20(c), the disclosures shall reflect the credit
2 terms to which the parties are legally bound when the disclosures are provided.”

3 87. The Official binding staff commentary further states, at 12 C.F.R. § 226.17(c)(1)(2), that 4 “[t]he legal obligation normally is presumed to be contained in the note or contract that evidences the 5 agreement.”

6 88. Official Staff Commentary to 12 C.F.R. § 226.17(c)(1) states that “[i]f a loan contains a
7 rate or payment cap that would prevent the initial rate or payment, at the time of the first adjustment,
8 from changing to the rate determined by the index or formula at consummation, the effect of that rate or 9 payment cap should be reflected in the disclosures.”

10 89. At all times relevant during the liability period, Defendants’ Option ARM loans violated
11 12 C.F.R. § 226.17(c) in that the Note(s) and TILDS did not disclose, and by omission, failed to disclose
12 what Plaintiff and the Class members were legally obligated to pay. In particular, the Note(s) charged
13 these borrowers a much higher monthly amount than what Defendants disclosed. Defendants
14 accomplished this deception by only listing a partial payment in the TILDS, rather than a payment 15 amount that was sufficient to pay what these borrowers were being charged for their loans, and were 16 legally obligated to pay.

17 90. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants’ omissions and failures to clearly and 18 conspicuously disclose Plaintiff’s and the Class members’ legal obligations under the loans, Defendants 19 took the partial payments and secretly added the deficit, each month, to principal, thereby causing 20 negative amortization to occur.

21 E. Defendants’ Failure to Disclose the Composite APR Violates Truth in Lending Laws

22 91. Defendants provided Plaintiff and the Class members with multiple, conflicting annual 23 interest rates when describing the costs of this loan. On the TILDS, Defendants set forth one annual 24 interest rate, while on the Note, Defendants set forth a different annual interest rate.

25 92. The FRB’s Commentary to 12 C.F.R § 226.(17)(C)-6 requires that the APR must “reflect 26 a composite annual percentage rate based on the initial rate for as long as it is charged and, for the 27 remainder of the term, the rate that would have been applied using the index or formula at the time of 28 consummation.”

“in a variable-rate transaction with a...discounted or premium rate, disclosures should not be based solely on the initial terms. In those transactions, the disclosed annual percentage rate should be a composite rate based on the rate in effect during the initial period and the rate that is the basis of the variable-rate feature for the remainder of the term.”

93. The reason for this requirement is clear. Consumers cannot make an informed decision when they cannot compare the cost of credit to other proposals. It is therefore incumbent upon Defendants to show the composite interest rate in effect so that the borrowers can understand exactly what they will be paying for the loan.

94. A lender violates TILA, and Reg. Z by failing to list the composite annual interest rate in variable rate loans that have a discounted initial rate. The loan sold to Plaintiff and Class members by Defendants is a variable-rate loan. At all times relevant during the liability period, Defendants listed an annual interest rate in the Note(s) that, in truth, would only be provided for the first thirty (30) to forty-five (45) days of a thirty year loan, and would, with one hundred percent certainty, be increased after that first month. Because Defendants failed to clearly and conspicuously disclose the composite annual percentage rate on these loans, and instead listed a different interest rate in the documents provided to consumers, Defendants violated TILA and Regulation Z, and failed to provide disclosures that did not obscure relevant information.

F. Defendants' Failure to Clearly and Conspicuously Disclose that the Initial Interest Rate is Discounted Violates TILA

95. Variable rate loans are based on a "margin" and an "index." The index is often the Prime Rate or the LIBOR exchange rate. The margin is the amount the lender charges over and above that indexed rate.

96. TILA and Regulation Z require that when the interest rate on a loan is a "discounted rate" ( i.e., not based on the index and margin) a separate disclosure is required. The disclosure must also inform borrowers that, after the discounted rate falls away, the interest rate will increase and it must conspicuously describe all of the circumstances under which the interest rate will increase. Further, the disclosure must inform the borrower what the true cost of the loan is.

97. The Federal Reserve Board established disclosure requirements for variable rate loans. 26 C.F.R. § 226.19 requires lenders to disclose the frequency of interest rate and payment adjustments to

1 borrowers. If interest rate changes will be imposed more frequently or at different intervals than 2 payment changes, a creditor must disclose the frequency and timing of both types of changes.

3 98. The Notes at issue only stated that the interest rate “may” increase in the future.
4 However, it was absolutely certain, and not merely possible, that the interest rate would increase above
5 the discounted annual interest rate after thirty (30) days. At all times relevant, Defendants failed to 6 clearly, conspicuously and unambiguously disclose this critical fact as required by law.

7 99. Further violating TILA’s disclosure requirements, Defendants’ loan documents state that 8 the interest rate may increase during the term of this transaction if the index increases. That statement is 9 incomplete and misleading, as an increase in the index was not the only thing that could cause an 10 increase in the interest rate. Because the disclosed interest rate was discounted, it was absolutely certain 11 to increase even without any change in the index. Thus, Defendants’ disclosures were unclear,
12 inconspicuous, ambiguous and misleading in violation of TILA.

13 100. In stark contrast to the incomplete, misleading, contradictory and false statements that 14 Defendants made to Plaintiff and the Class regarding the interest rate applicable to the loans here at 15 issue, Defendants unambiguously told their investors (but not Plaintiff or the Class) that the APR listed
16 in the Note would apply for just one month, after which time it would be replaced by a monthly 17 adjustable interest rate based on the margin and index:

18 101. Defendants failed to disclose, and by omission, failed to inform Plaintiff and the Class
19 members that the initial interest rate was discounted, and that it was absolutely certain to increase even 20 when the index did not rise. Due to the initial discounted interest rate being listed at 1.000%, the 21 interest rate would increase because the index and margin were several points higher. Even when 22 Defendants did provide a disclosure that stated the initial payment was not based on the index, they did
23 so in a manner that was not clear and conspicuous. Because the loan documents failed to provide this 24 extremely important material information in a clear and conspicuous manner that did not obscure its 25 importance, Defendants' disclosure failed to satisfy the requirements of TILA.

26 102. Defendants failed to disclose to Plaintiff and the Class members that their interest rate 27 was, with 100% certainty, going to increase, regardless of whether the index upon which their loans are 28 based changed. As such, Defendants violated TILA and Regulation Z by providing Plaintiff and the

1 Class members with unclear, deceptive and poorly drafted or intentionally misleading disclosures.

2 103. Defendants also failed to disclose all of the ways by which the interest rate applicable to 3 Plaintiff's and Class members' loans could increase, in violation of TILA.

4 G. Defendants' Failure to Clearly and Conspicuously Disclose the Effect of the 5 Payment Cap on the True Cost of the Loan Violates Truth in Lending Laws

6 104. The Option ARM loans at issue contained a variable rate feature with an initial teaser rate
7 with payment caps. The payment cap is a limit on how much the payment may be increased annually.
8 Its purpose is to provide borrowers with a limit on how much their payment can increase from year to 9 year. The loans issued by Defendants had a 7.5% payment cap, which means that a borrower would 10 only see their payment rise each year by a maximum of 7.5%. (i.e. a $1,000 monthly payment in year 11 one, could go to a $1,075 payment in year two.)

12 105. The Official Staff Commentary to 12 C.F.R. § 226.17(c)(1)(10)(iii) states that "[i]f a 13 loan contains a rate or payment cap that would prevent the initial rate or payment, at the time of the first 14 adjustment, from changing to the rate determined by the index or formula at consummation, the effect of 15 that rate or payment cap should be reflected in the disclosures." Thus, at all times relevant during the 16 liability period, Defendants had a duty to Plaintiff and the Class members to disclose in the payment
17 schedule of the TILDS the effect the payment cap would have on the loans.

18 106. Defendants failed to disclose, and by omission, failed to inform Plaintiff and the Class
19 members that the payment cap would cause hundreds, if not thousands of dollars, each month, to be 20 secretly added to principle.

21 107. As a direct and proximate result, Defendants failed to disclose, and by omission, failed to 22 inform Plaintiff and the Class members of the effect of the payment cap in violation of 12 C.F.R. § 23 226.17.

24 108. The violations of TILA and Regulation Z described in this Complaint are apparent on the 25 face of the Note, TILDS and other disclosure documents provided to Plaintiff and the Class because the 26 disclosures provided can be determined to be incomplete or inaccurate by a comparison among the 27 TILDS, the other disclosure statements, and the Note described herein.

28 ///

109. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' violations of TILA, as alleged herein, Plaintiff and the Class members have suffered injury in an amount to be determined at time of trial. If Defendants had not violated TILA and had instead clearly and conspicuously disclosed the material terms of Defendants' Option ARM loan, as alleged herein, Plaintiff and the Class members would not have entered into the home loan contracts which are the subject of this action. Because Defendants failed to make the proper disclosures required under TILA, Plaintiff and the Class members now seek redress in an amount and/or type as proven at time of trial.

110. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and the Class members are entitled to an order declaring that Defendants violated TILA, 15 U.S.C. §1601, et seq., that Plaintiff and the Class have the right to rescind pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1635 and 12 C.F.R. § 226.23, attorneys fees, litigation costs and expenses and costs of suit, and for an order rescinding Plaintiff's individual mortgage and those of any class member desirous of such relief, and for an order awarding other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

6 numerous laws and/or regulations and said predicate acts are therefore per se violations of Business &
7 Professions Code §§17200, et seq. These predicate unlawful business acts and/or practices include
8 Defendants failure to comply with the disclosure requirements mandated by TILA, 15 U.S.C. §1601, et 9 seq., Regulation Z and Official Staff Commentary issued by the Federal Reserve Board. And, as 10 described in more detail above, Defendants also failed in a number of ways to clearly or accurately
11 disclose the terms of the ARM loan to Plaintiff and the Class members as required under TILA.

12           117. Defendants' misconduct as alleged herein gave Defendants an unfair competitive
13 advantage over their competitors.

14           118. As a direct and proximate result of the aforementioned acts, Defendants, and each of 15 them, received monies and continues to hold the monies expended by Plaintiff and others similarly
16 situated who purchased the ARM loans as described herein.

17           119. In addition to the relief requested in the Prayer below, Plaintiff seeks the imposition of a
18 constructive trust over, and restitution of, the monies collected and realized by Defendants.

19           120. The unlawful acts and practices, as fully described herein, present a continuing threat to 20 members of the public to be mislead and/or deceived by Defendants as described herein. Plaintiff and 21 other members of the general public have no other remedy of law that will prevent Defendants
22 misconduct as alleged herein from occurring and/or reoccurring in the future.

23           121. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct alleged herein, Plaintiff
24 and Class Members have lost thousands if not millions of dollars of equity in their homes. Plaintiff and 25 the Class members are direct victims of the Defendants' unlawful conduct, as herein alleged, and each
26 has suffered injury in fact, and have lost money or property as a result of Defendants' unfair
27 competition.

28           122. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and members of the Classes are entitled to equitable relief,

1 including restitution, restitutionary disgorgement of all profits accruing to Defendants because of their
 2 unlawful and deceptive acts and practices, attorneys' fees and costs, declaratory relief, and a permanent
 3 injunction enjoining Defendants from their unlawful activity.

6 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

7 Fraudulent Omissions

8 (Against All Defendants)

9 123. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

10 124. As alleged herein, pursuant to TILA, 15 U.S.C. §§1601, et seq., Regulation Z (12 C.F.R.
 11 §226 ) and the Federal Reserve Board's Official Staff Commentary, Defendants had a duty to disclose to 12 Plaintiff, and each Class member, (i) the actual interest rate being charged on the Note(s), (ii) that 13 negative amortization would occur and that the "principle balance will increase"; and (iii) that the initial 14 interest rate on the note was discounted.

15 125. Defendants further had a duty to disclose to Plaintiff, and each Class member (i) the 16 actual interest rate being charged on the Note(s), (ii) that negative amortization would occur and that the 17 "principle balance will increase"; and (iii) that the initial interest rate on the note was discounted, based 18 upon Defendants' partial representations of material facts when Defendants had exclusive knowledge of 19 material facts that negative amortization was certain to occur.

20 126. The Note(s) state at ¶ 3 (A) "I will make a payment every month" [and] "I will make 21 these payments every month until I have paid all the Principal and Interest and any other charges that I
 22 owe under this Note." The Note(s) then state, at ¶ 3(D), while referencing the Payment Cap provision,
 23 that "[t]his Payment Cap applies only to the Principal and Interest payment ..." And in ¶ 7(A), under 24 the heading "BORROWERS FAILURE TO PAY AS REQUIRED," the Note(s) state "[t]he amount of 25 the charge will be 5.000% of my overdue payment of Principal and Interest." However, the true facts
 26 are that the payments schedules provided by Defendants were completely insufficient to pay both 27 interest and principal. In fact, the payment amounts provided in the TILDS were not even sufficient to 28 pay enough interest to avoid negative amortization which, under the terms of the Note(s) was absolutely

1 certain to occur.

2 127. The Note(s) further state, at ¶ 3(C) “If the Minimum Payment is not sufficient to cover
3 the amount of the interest due then negative amortization will occur.” However, the payments provided
4 by Defendants in the TILD were absolutely incapable of covering the amount of interest due and 5 therefore this statement was false in that it omitted this material fact.

6 128. The Note(s) further state, at ¶ 3(E) that “my Minimum Payment could be less than or 7 greater than the amount of the interest portion of the monthly payment.” And, “[f]or each month that 8 my monthly payment is less than the interest portion, the Note Holder will subtract the amount of my 9 monthly payment from the amount of the interest portion and will add the difference to my unpaid
10 Principal, and interest will accrue on the amount of this difference ...” However, the payment schedules
11 provided by Defendants in the TILDS were absolutely incapable of covering the amount of interest due 12 and therefore these statements were false in that it omitted this material fact.

13 129. The Note(s) list an interest rate and a payment amount based on that initial interest rate.
14 However, the TILDS Defendants gave to Plaintiff and the Class members include the schedule of 15 payments (including that initial payment rate) but yet disclose a different interest rate. In truth, the 16 payment schedule stated in the TILDS is wholly unrelated to the true interest rate being charged on the 17 loans and, at all times relevant during the liability period, Defendants failed to disclose, and by 18 omission, failed to inform Plaintiff and the Class members of this important material information.

19 130. The aforementioned omitted information was not known to Plaintiff and the Class
20 members and which, at all times relevant, Defendants failed to disclose and/or actively concealed by
21 making such statements and partial, misleading representations to Plaintiff and all others similarly
22 situated. Because the Option ARM loans did not provide a low interest rate for the first three (3) to five 23 (5) years of the Note, and the payment rate disclosed by Defendants was insufficient to pay both 24 principle and interest, negative amortization occurred.

25 131. Defendants, and each of them, failed to disclose, and by omission failed to inform 26 Plaintiff and each Class member that (i) the payment rate provided to Plaintiff and the Class members on 27 the TILDS was insufficient to pay both principle and interest; (ii) that negative amortization was 28 absolutely certain to occur if Plaintiff and the Class members made payments according to the payment

1 schedule provided by Defendants; and (iii) that loss of equity and/or loss of Plaintiff's and the Class
2 members' residence was substantially certain to occur if Plaintiff and the Class members made
3 payments according to the payment schedule provided by Defendants.

4 132. As alleged herein, Defendants had a duty to disclose to Plaintiff, and each Class member
5 and at all times relevant, failed to disclose and/or concealed material facts by making partial
6 representations of some material facts when Defendants had exclusive knowledge of material facts,
7 including but not limited to, (i) the disclosed interest was not the actual interest rate charged on the 8 Note(s), (ii) that negative amortization was certain to occur, and (iii) that the initial rate was discounted.
9 The concealed and omitted information was not known to Plaintiff and the Class members and which, at 10 all times relevant, Defendants failed to disclose and/or actively concealed by making such statements
11 and partial, misleading representations to Plaintiff and all others similarly situated. Because the Option
12 ARM loans did not provide a low interest rate for the first three (3) to five (5) years of the Note, and the 13 payment rate disclosed by Defendants was insufficient to pay both principle and interest, negative 14 amortization occurred.

15 133. From the inception of the Option ARM loan scheme, until the present, Defendants have 16 engaged in a purposeful and fraudulent scheme to omit material facts known solely to them, and not 17 reasonably discoverable by Plaintiff and the Class members, regarding the true facts concerning the 18 actual interest rate charged on the loans, that negative amortization that was certain to occur, and that 19 the initial interest rate, in fact, was discounted, all of which Defendants were duty bound to clearly and 20 conspicuously disclose to Plaintiff and the Class members in the TILDS.

21 134. Defendants have known from the inception of their Option ARM loan scheme that these 22 loans, (i) do not provide the promised annual interest rate for the first three (3) to five (5) years of the 23 Note, (ii) that negative amortization would occur and that Plaintiff's and the Class members' principle
24 balances would increase, and (iii) that the initial interest rate was discounted and did not accurately
25 reflect the interest that consumers were being charged on the loans.

26 135. Defendants purposefully and intentionally devised this Option ARM loan scheme to 27 defraud and/or mislead consumers into believing that these loans would provide a low-interest rate loan,
28 for the first three (3) to five (5) years of the note and that if they made their payments according to the

1 payment schedule provided by Defendants that it would be sufficient to pay both principle and interest.

2 136. The omitted information, as alleged herein, was material to Plaintiff and each Class
3 member in that had the information be disclosed, Plaintiff and each Class member would not have 4 entered into the loans.

5 137. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' failures to disclose and omission of 6 material facts, as alleged herein, Plaintiff and each Class member has suffered damages, which include,
7 but are not limited to the loss of equity Plaintiff and each Class member had in their homes prior to 8 entering these loans.

9 138. The wrongful conduct of Defendants, as alleged herein, was willful, oppressive, immoral,
10 unethical, unscrupulous, substantially injurious, malicious and in conscious disregard for the well being 11 of Plaintiff, and others similarly situated. Accordingly, Plaintiff, and the others similarly situated seek 12 punitive damages against Defendants in an amount to deter Defendants from similar conduct in the 13 future.

14 139. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and members of the Class are entitled to all legal and equitable 15 remedies provided by law, including but not limited to actual damages, exemplary damages, 16 prejudgment interest and costs.

18 IX.

19 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 Violation of California's Unfair Competition Law, Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq.,

21 "Unfair" and "Fraudulent" Business Acts or Practices

22 (Against All Defendants)

23 140. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

24 141. Plaintiff brings this cause of action on behalf of himself, on behalf of the Class, and in his 25 capacity as a private attorney general against all Defendants for their unfair, fraudulent and/or deceptive
26 business acts and/or practices pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.,
27 which prohibits all unfair and/or fraudulent business acts and/or practices.

28 142. Plaintiff asserts these claims as he is a representative of an aggrieved group and as

1 private attorney general on behalf of the general public and other persons who have expended funds that
2 the Defendants should be required to pay or reimburse under the equitable and restitutionary remedies
3 provided by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

4 143. The instant claim is predicated on the generally applicable duty of any contracting party
5 to not misrepresent material facts, and on the duty to refrain from unfair and deceptive business
6 practices. The Plaintiff and the Class members hereby seek to enforce a general proscription of unfair
7 business practices and the requirement to refrain from deceptive conduct. The instant claim is 8 predicated on duties that govern anyone engaged in any business and anyone contracting with anyone 9 else.

10 144. At all times relevant, Defendants engaged in a pattern of deceptive conduct and 11 concealment aimed at maximizing the number of borrowers who would accept their Option ARM loan.
12 Defendants, and each of them, marketed and sold Plaintiff and the Class members a deceptively devised
13 financial product. Defendants marketed and sold their Option ARM loan product to consumers,
14 including Plaintiff, in a false or deceptive manner. Defendants marketed and advertised to the general 15 public through brochures, flyers and other substantially identical marketing material, a loan which 16 appeared to have a very low, fixed interest rate for a period of three (3) to five (5) years and no negative
17 amortization. Further, Defendants disguised from Plaintiff and the Class members the fact that 18 Defendants' Option ARM loan was designed to, and did, cause negative amortization to occur.

19 145. Defendants lured Plaintiff and the Class members into the Option ARM loan with 20 promises of low fixed interest. Once Plaintiff and the Class members entered into these loans, 21 Defendants switched the interest rate charged on the loans to a much higher rate than the one they 22 advertised and promised to Plaintiff and the Class members. After entering these loans, Class members
23 could not escape because Defendants purposefully placed into these loans an extremely onerous 24 prepayment penalty that made it prohibitively expensive for consumers to extricate themselves from 25 these loans. Thus, once on the hook, consumers could not escape from Defendants loans.

26 146. Plaintiff and Class members were consumers who applied for a mortgage loan through 27 Defendants. During the loan application process, in each case, Defendants uniformly promoted,
28 advertised, and informed Plaintiff and Class members that in accepting these loan terms, Plaintiff and

1 Class members would be able to lower their mortgage payment and save money.

2 147. Defendants promoted their Option ARM loan as having a low fixed interest rate, i.e.,
3 typically between 1% and 3%. However, Defendants did not disclose that this was just a “teaser” rate,
4 the purpose of which was to get consumers to enter into loan agreements with Defendants. Defendants
5 did not disclose to Plaintiff and the Class members that the “teaser” rate was not the fixed rate that 6 Defendants would actually charge Plaintiff and the Class members on their outstanding loan balances.

7 148. Based on the Defendants’ representations and conduct, Plaintiff and the Class members
8 agreed to finance their primary residence through Defendants’ Option ARM loan. Plaintiff and the 9 Class members were told they were being sold a home loan with a low interest rate, fixed for the first 10 three (3) to five (5) years of the loan. Plaintiff and the Class members were also lead to believe that if 11 they made payments based on this advertised interest rate, and the payment schedule provided to them
12 by Defendants, the loan was a no negative amortization home loan. After, the fixed interest period, 13 Plaintiff and the Class members were told their rate “may” change. And, Plaintiff believed they would 14 then be able to re-finance to another home loan. Plaintiff and the Class members believed these facts to 15 be true because that is what the Defendants wanted consumers to believe, that is what Defendants lead 16 consumers to believe.

17 149. Defendants aggressively sold their product as a fixed low interest home loan. Defendants
18 knew that if marketed in such a manner, their Option ARM loan product would be a hugely popular and 19 profitable product for them. Defendants also knew, however, that they were marketing their product in a 20 false and deceptive manner. While Defendants trumpeted their low, fixed rate loans to the public,
21 Defendants knew, however, that this was not entirely true.

22 150. In fact, Defendants’ Option ARM loan possessed a low, fixed payment but not a low,
23 fixed interest rate. Unbeknownst to Plaintiff and Class members, the actual interest rate they were 24 charged on their loans was not fixed. After purchasing Defendants’ Option ARM loan product, Plaintiff
25 and class members never actually received the benefit of the low advertised interest rate, or, in some 26 cases, consumers received the low rate for just a single month. Immediately, thereafter, Defendants in 27 every instance and for every loan increased the interest rate they charged Plaintiff and the Class
28 members. Once Plaintiff and Class members accepted Defendants’ Option ARM loan, they had no

1 viable option to extricate themselves because of these loan agreements included a draconian pre-
2 payment penalty.

3 151. Defendants perpetrated a bait and switch scheme on Plaintiff and Class members.
4 Defendants' conduct and failure to disclose the whole truth about the loan's interest rate and to describe
5 the loan as having a fixed interest rate was deceptive and unfair. Defendants initiated this scheme in
6 order to maximize the amount of the loans issued to consumers and to maximize Defendants' profits.

7 152. The acts, misrepresentations, omissions, and practices of Defendants alleged above
8 constitute unfair, and/or fraudulent business acts and/or practices within the meaning of California
9 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

10 153. By engaging in the above-described acts and practices, Defendants have 11 committed one or more acts of unfair competition within the meaning of Business & Professions Code 12 §§ 17200, et seq.

13 154. Defendants' conduct, as fully described above, was likely to deceive members of the 14 consuming public, and at all times, Defendants' failures to disclose and omission of material facts have 15 been and continue to be unfair, fraudulent, untrue and/or deceptive.

16 155. Defendants' misconduct as alleged herein gave Defendants an unfair competitive
17 advantage over their competitors.

18 156. As a direct and proximate result of the aforementioned acts, Defendants, and each of 19 them, received monies and continues to hold the monies expended by Plaintiff and others similarly
20 situated who purchased the ARM loans as described herein.

21 157. In addition to the relief requested in the Prayer below, Plaintiff seeks the imposition of a
22 constructive trust over, and restitution of, the monies collected and realized by Defendants.

23 158. The harm to Plaintiff, members of the general public and others similarly situated
24 outweighs the utility of Defendants' policies, acts and/or practices and, consequently Defendants'
25 conduct herein constitutes an unlawful business act or practice within the meaning of California
26 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

27 159. The unfair, deceptive and/or fraudulent business practices of Defendants, as fully 28 described herein, present a continuing threat to members of the public to be mislead and/or deceived by

1 Defendants' ARM loans as described herein. Plaintiff and other members of the general public have no
2 other remedy of law that will prevent Defendants' misconduct as alleged herein from occurring and/or 3 reoccurring in the future.

4 160. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unfair and/or fraudulent conduct alleged 5 herein, Plaintiff and Class Members have lost thousands if not millions of dollars of equity in their
6 homes. Plaintiff and Class members are direct victims of the Defendants' unlawful conduct, and each
7 has suffered injury in fact, and have lost money or property as a result of Defendants' unfair
8 competition.

9 161. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and members of the Classes are entitled to equitable relief,
10 including restitution, restitutionary disgorgement of all profits accruing to Defendants because of their 11 unfair, fraudulent, and deceptive acts and/or practices, attorneys' fees and costs, declaratory relief, and a 12 permanent injunction enjoining Defendants from their unfair, fraudulent and deceitful activity.

13
14 X.

15 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 Breach of Contract

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 162. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

19 163. Plaintiff and Class members entered into a written home loan agreement – the contract or 20 Note – with Defendants. The Note was drafted by Defendants and could not be modified by Plaintiff or 21 Class members. The Note describes terms and respective obligations applicable to the parties herein.

22 164. The Note describes Plaintiff's and Class members' interest rate on the loan as a low
23 interest rate, typically between 1% and 3%. In addition, as required by federal law, the Defendants
24 provided a Truth In Lending Disclosure concerning the home loan agreement that shows a payment
25 schedule based on that low 1% to 3% interest rate. For the first three (3) to five (5) years the payment
26 schedule shows that Plaintiff's and Class members' monthly payment obligations to Defendants are the 27 exact payments necessary to pay off all principal and interest during the terms of the loans if, indeed, the 28 interest rate actually charged by Defendants on the loans was the low interest rate promised.

1           165. Defendants drafted the Note and did not allow Plaintiff or the Class members any
2 opportunity to make changes to the Note and due to Defendants' superior bargaining position, the Note
3 was offered on a take it or leave it basis. As such, the Notes at issue are contracts of adhesion.

4           166. Defendants expressly and/or through their conduct and actions agreed that Plaintiff's and 5 the Class members' monthly payment obligations would be sufficient to pay both the principal and 6 interest owed on the loans. Defendants breached this agreement and never applied any of Plaintiff's and 7 the Class members' payments to principal.

8           167. The written payment schedules prepared by Defendants, and applicable to Plaintiff's and
9 Class members' loans, show that the payment amounts owed by Plaintiff and Class members to
10 Defendants in year one are exactly equal to the amount required to pay off the loan if, indeed, the 11 interest actually charged on the loan was the low interest rate promised. If the Defendants did as 12 promised, the payments would have been sufficient to pay both principal and interest amounts.

13           168. Instead, Defendants immediately raised Plaintiff's and Class members' interest rates and 14 applied no part of Plaintiff's and Class members' payments were applied to the principal balances on 15 their loans. In fact, because Defendants charged more interest than was agreed to and payments, as 16 disclosed by Defendants, were, at all times relevant, insufficient to cover the interest charge and thus 17 principal balances increased (which is the negative amortization built into the loan).

18           169. Defendants breached the written contractual agreement by failing to apply any portion of 19 Plaintiff's and the Class members' monthly payments towards their principal loan balances.

20           170. Plaintiff and the Class members, on the other hand, did all of those things the contract
21 required of them. Plaintiff and the Class members made monthly payments in the amount required by 22 the terms of the Note and reflected in the payment schedule prepared by Defendants.

23           171. As a result of Defendants' breach of the agreement, Plaintiff and the Class members have 24 suffered harm. Plaintiff and Class members have incurred additional charges to their principal loan
25 balance. Plaintiff and Class members have incurred and will continue to incur additional interest
26 charges on the principal loan balance and surplus interest added to Plaintiff's and Class members'
27 principal loan balance. Furthermore, Defendants' breach has placed Plaintiff and Class members in 28 danger of losing their homes through foreclosure, as Defendants have caused Plaintiff's and Class

1 members' principal loan balances to increase and limited these consumers' ability to make their future
2 house payments or obtain alternative home loan financing.

3 172. At all times relevant, there existed a gross inequality of bargaining power between the 4 parties to the ARM loan contracts. At all times relevant, Defendants unreasonably and unconscionably
5 exploited their superior bargaining position and foisted upon Plaintiff and the Class members extremely 6 harsh, one-sided provisions in the contract, which Plaintiff and Class members were not made aware of 7 and did not comprehend (e.g., Defendants' fraud and failures to clearly and conspicuously disclose as 8 alleged herein), and which attempt to severely limit Defendants' obligations under the contracts at the 9 expense of Plaintiff and Class members, as alleged herein. As a result of these extremely harsh, one-
10 sided provisions, including but not limited to the provisions which seek to limit the "teaser" interest rate
11 for one month or less, these provisions are unconscionable and therefore unenforceable.

12 173. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and members of the Classes are entitled to declaratory relief,
13 compensatory damages proximately caused by Defendants' breach of contract as alleged herein, pre-
14 judgment interest, costs of suit and other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

15
16 XI.

17 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 Tortious Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing
19 (Against All Defendants)

20 174. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

21 175. Defendants entered into written agreements with Plaintiff and Class members based on 22 representations Defendants made directly and indirectly to Plaintiff and the Class members about the 23 terms of their loans.

24 176. Defendants expressly represented to Plaintiff and the Class members that they would 25 provide loans secured by Plaintiff's and Class members' homes, and that the loans would have a fixed 26 interest rate at promised low interest rate for a period of three (3) to five (5) years.

27 177. Defendants also represented that if Plaintiff and the Class members made the monthly
28 payments in the amount prescribed by Defendants that no negative amortization would occur. The Note

1 expressly states and/or implies that Plaintiff's and Class members' monthly payment obligation will be
2 applied to pay both principal and interest owed on the loan. The Note further states that for each
3 monthly payment Plaintiff and the Class members interest shall be paid before principal.

4 178. The written payment schedules prepared by Defendants, and applicable to Plaintiff's and
5 Class members' loans, show that the payment amounts owed by Plaintiff and Class members to
6 Defendants in year one are exactly equal to the amount required to pay off the loan if, indeed, the
7 interest actually charged on the loan was the low interest rate promised. If the Defendants acted as it
8 promised, the payments would have been sufficient to pay both principal and interest.

9 179. Instead, Defendants immediately raised Plaintiff's and Class members' interest rate and 10 applied no part of Plaintiff's and Class members' payment to principal. In fact, because Defendants
11 charged more interest than was disclosed and agreed to in the loans, Plaintiff's and the Class members'
12 payments were insufficient to cover the interest that Defendants charged resulting in an increase in the 13 amount of principal Plaintiff and the Class members owed on their homes.

14 180. Defendants unfairly interfered with Plaintiff's and Class members' rights to receive the 15 benefits of the contract. These loans will cost Plaintiff and Class members thousands of dollars more
16 than represented by Defendants. Plaintiff and Class members did not receive the fixed low interest rate
17 home loan promised them by Defendants. Defendants have caused Plaintiff and Class members to lose
18 equity in their homes and therefore have denied Plaintiff and Class members the enjoyment, security of 19 one of their most important investments.

20 181. Plaintiff and Class members, on the other hand, did all of those things the contract
21 required of them. Plaintiff and Class members made monthly payments in the amount required by the 22 terms of the Note and reflected in the payment schedule prepared by Defendants.

23 182. At all times relevant, Defendants unreasonably denied Plaintiff and members of the Class
24 the benefits promised to them under the terms of the Note, including but not limited to a low interest rate
25 for the first three (3) to five (5) years of the loan, and clear and conspicuous disclosure of a payment
26 amount sufficient to pay both principle and interest so as to avoid negative amortization and the other
27 failures to comply with the disclosure requirements mandated by TILA, 15 U.S.C. §1601, et seq.,
28 Regulation Z and Official Staff Commentary issued by the Federal Reserve Board as alleged herein

1           183. Knowing the truth and motivated by profit and market share, Defendants have knowingly
2 and willfully breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing by engaged in the acts and/or 3 omissions to mislead and/or deceive Plaintiff and others similarly situated as alleged herein.

4           184. Defendants' breaches, as alleged herein were committed with willful and wanton
5 disregard for whether or not Plaintiff or others similarly situated would actually receive a home loan that 6 would provide the promised low interest and payment rate for the first three (3) to five (5) years of the 7 loan sufficient to pay both principle and interest.

8           185. Upon information and belief and at all times relevant, Defendants possessed full
9 knowledge and information concerning the above facts about the ARM loans, and otherwise sold these 10 ARM loans throughout the United States, including the State of California.

11           186. Defendants' placing of their corporate and/or individual profits over the rights of others
12 is particularly vile, base, contemptible, and wretched and said acts and/or omissions were performed on 13 the part of officers, directors, and/or managing agents of each corporate defendant and/or taken with the 14 advance knowledge of the officers, directors, and/or managing agents who authorized and/or ratified
15 said acts and/or omissions. Defendants thereby acted with malice and complete indifference to and/or 16 conscious disregard for the rights and safety of others, including Plaintiff and the General Public.

17           187. At all times relevant, Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, was malicious, oppressive,

ADJUSTABLE RATE NOTE

(MTA-Twelve Month Average Index - Payment Caps)

THIS NOTE CONTAINS PROVISIONS THAT WILL CHANGE THE INTEREST RATE AND THE MONTHLY PAYMENT. THERE MAY BE A LIMIT ON THE AMOUNT THAT THE MONTHLY PAYMENT CAN INCREASE OR DECREASE. THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT TO REPAY COULD BE GREATER THAN THE AMOUNT ORIGINALLY BORROWED, BUT NOT MORE THAN THE MAXIMUM LIMIT STATED IN THIS NOTE.

JULY 20, 2005
[Date]IRVINE
[City]CALIFORNIA
[State]731 COLUMBIA AVENUE, SALINAS, CALIFORNIA 93901
[Property Address]

1. BORROWER'S PROMISE TO PAY

In return for a loan that I have received, I promise to pay U.S. $520,000.00 (this amount is called "Principal"), plus interest, to the order of Lender. The Principal amount may increase as provided under the terms of this Note but will never exceed (ONE HUNDRED FIFTEEN PERCENT) of the Principal amount I originally borrowed. This is called the "Maximum Limit." Lender is MORTGAGE INVESTORS GROUP, A GENERAL PARTNERSHIP. I will make all payments under this Note in the form of cash, check or money order.

I understand that Lender may transfer this Note. Lender or anyone who takes this Note by transfer and who is entitled to receive payments under this Note is called the "Note Holder."

2. INTEREST

(A) Interest Rate

Interest will be charged on unpaid Principal until the full amount of Principal has been paid. I will pay interest at a yearly rate of 1.000 %. The interest rate I will pay may change.

The interest rate required by this Section 2 is the rate I will pay both before and after any default described in Section 7(B) of this Note.

(B) Interest Rate Change Dates

The interest rate I will pay may change on the 1st day of SEPTEMBER, 2005, and on that day every month thereafter. Each date on which my interest rate could change is called an "Interest Rate Change Date." The new rate of interest will become effective on each Interest Rate Change Date. The interest rate may change monthly, but the monthly payment is recalculated in accordance with Section 3.

(C) Index

Beginning with the first Interest Rate Change Date, my adjustable interest rate will be based on an Index. The "Index" is the "Twelve-Month Average" of the annual yields on actively traded United States Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of one year as published by the Federal Reserve Board in the Federal Reserve Statistical Release entitled "Selected Interest Rates (H.15)" (the "Monthly Yields"). The Twelve Month Average is determined by adding together the Monthly Yields for the most recently available twelve months and dividing by 12. The most recent Index figure available as of the date 15 days before each Interest Rate Change Date is called the "Current Index".

If the Index is no longer available, the Note Holder will choose a new index that is based upon comparable information. The Note Holder will give me notice of this choice.

(D) Calculation of Interest Rate Changes

Before each Interest Rate Change Date, the Note Holder will calculate my new interest rate by adding THREE AND 075/1000 percentage point(s) 3.075 % ("Margin") to the Current Index. The Note Holder will then round the result of this addition to the nearest one-eighth of one percentage point (0.125%). This rounded amount will be my new interest rate until the next Interest Rate Change Date. My interest will never be greater than 9.950 %. Beginning with the first Interest Rate Change Date, my interest rate will never be lower than the Margin.

3. PAYMENTS

(A) Time and Place of Payments

I will make a payment every month.

I will make my monthly payments on the 1st day of each month beginning on SEPTEMBER 1, 2005. I will make these payments every month until I have paid all the Principal and interest and any other charges described below that I may owe under this Note. Each monthly payment will be applied as of its scheduled due date and will be applied to interest before Principal. If, on AUGUST 1, 2035, I still owe amounts under this Note, I will pay those amounts in full on that date, which is called the "Maturity Date."

I will make my monthly payments at 16257 LAGUNA CANYON ROAD #100, IRVINE, CALIFORNIA 92618 or at a different place if required by the Note Holder.

(B) Amount of My Initial Monthly Payments

Each of my initial monthly payments until the first Payment Change Date will be in the amount of U.S. $ 1,672.53 unless adjusted under Section 3 (F).

(C) Payment Change Dates

My monthly payment may change as required by Section 3(D) below beginning on the 1st day of SEPTEMBER, 2006, and on that day every 12th month thereafter. Each of these dates is called a "Payment Change Date." My monthly payment also will change at any time Section 3(F) or 3(G) below requires me to pay a different monthly payment. The "Minimum Payment" is the minimum amount the Note Holder will accept for my monthly payment which is determined at the last Payment Change Date or as provided in Section 3(F) or 3(G) below. If the Minimum Payment is not sufficient to cover the amount of the interest due then negative amortization will occur.

I will pay the amount of my new Minimum Payment each month beginning on each Payment Change Date or as provided in Section 3(F) or 3(G) below.

(D) Calculation of Monthly Payment Changes

At least 30 days before each Payment Change Date, the Note Holder will calculate the amount of the monthly payment that would be sufficient to repay the unpaid Principal that I am expected to owe at the Payment Change Date in full on the maturity date in substantially equal payments at the interest rate effective during the month preceding the Payment Change Date. The result of this calculation is called the "Full Payment." Unless Section 3(F) or 3(G) apply, the amount of my new monthly payment effective on a Payment Change Date, will not increase by more than 7.5% of my prior monthly payment. This 7.5% limitation is called the "Payment Cap." This Payment Cap applies only to the Principal and interest payment and does not apply to any escrow payments Lender may require under the Security Instrument. The Note Holder will apply the Payment Cap by taking the amount of my Minimum Payment due the month preceding the Payment Change Date and multiplying it by the number 1.075. The result of this calculation is called the "Limited Payment." Unless Section 3(F) or 3(G) below requires me to pay a different amount, my new Minimum Payment will be the lesser of the Limited Payment and the Full Payment. I also have the option to pay the Full Payment for my monthly payment.

(E) Additions to My Unpaid Principal

Since my monthly payment amount changes less frequently than the interest rate, and since the monthly payment is subject to the payment limitations described in Section 3 (D), my Minimum Payment could be less than or greater than the amount of the interest portion of the monthly payment that would be sufficient to repay the unpaid Principal I owe at the monthly payment date in full on the Maturity Date in substantially equal payments. For each month that my monthly payment is less than the interest portion, the Note Holder will subtract the amount of my monthly payment from the amount of the interest portion and will add the difference to my unpaid Principal, and interest will accrue on the amount of this difference at the interest rate required by Section 2. For each month that the monthly payment is greater than the interest portion, the Note Holder will apply the payment as provided in Section 3 (A).

(F) Limit on My Unpaid Principal; Increased Monthly Payment

My unpaid Principal can never exceed the Maximum Limit equal to 115.000 percent of the Principal amount I originally borrowed. My unpaid Principal could exceed that Maximum Limit due to Minimum Payments and interest rate increases. In that event, on the date that my paying my monthly payment would cause me to exceed that limit, I will instead pay a new monthly payment. This means that my monthly payment may change more frequently than annually and such payment changes will not be limited by the 7.5% Payment Cap. The new Minimum Payment will be in an amount that would be sufficient to repay my then unpaid Principal in full on the Maturity Date in substantially equal payments at the current interest rate.

(G) Required Full Payment

On the fifth Payment Change Date and on each succeeding fifth Payment Change Date thereafter, I will begin paying the Full Payment as my Minimum Payment until my monthly payment changes again. I also will begin paying the Full Payment as my Minimum Payment on the final Payment Change Date.

(H) Payment Options

After the first Interest Rate Change Date, Lender may provide me with up to three (3) additional payment options that are greater than the Minimum Payment, which are called "Payment Options." I may be given the following Payment Options:

- (i) Interest Only Payment: the amount that would pay the interest portion of the monthly payment at the current interest rate. The Principal balance will not be decreased by this Payment Option and it is only available if the interest portion exceeds the Minimum Payment.
- (ii) Fully Amortized Payment: the amount necessary to pay the loan off (Principal and interest) at the Maturity Date in substantially equal payments.
- (iii) 15 Year Amortized Payment: the amount necessary to pay the loan off (Principal and interest) within a fifteen (15) year term from the first payment due date in substantially equal payments. This monthly payment amount is calculated on the assumption that the current rate will remain in effect for the remaining term.

These Payment Options are only applicable if they are greater than the Minimum Payment.

4. NOTICE OF CHANGES

The Note Holder will deliver or mail to me a notice of any changes in the amount of my monthly payment before the effective date of any change. The notice will include information required by law to be given to me and also the title and telephone number of a person who will answer any question I may have regarding the notice.

5. BORROWER'S RIGHT TO PREPAY ** See attached Prepayment Note Addendum.

I have the right to make payments of Principal at any time before they are due. A payment of Principal only is known as a "Prepayment." When I make a Prepayment, I will tell the Note Holder in writing that I am doing so. I may not designate a payment as a Prepayment if I have not made all the monthly payments due under this Note.

I may make a full Prepayment or partial Prepayments without paying any Prepayment charge. The Note Holder will use my Prepayments to reduce the amount of Principal that I owe under this Note. If I make a partial Prepayment, there will be no changes in the due dates of my monthly payments. My partial Prepayment may reduce the amount of my monthly payments after the first Payment Change Date following my partial Prepayment. However, any reduction due to my partial Prepayment may be offset by an interest rate increase.

6. LOAN CHARGES

If a law, which applies to this loan and which sets maximum loan charges, is finally interpreted so that the interest or other loan charges collected or to be collected in connection with this loan exceed the permitted limits, then: (a) any such loan charge shall be reduced by the amount necessary to reduce the charge to the permitted limit; and (b) any sums already collected from me that exceeded permitted limits will be refunded to me. The Note Holder may choose to make this refund by reducing the Principal I owe under this Note or by making a direct payment to me. If a refund reduces Principal, the reduction will be treated as a partial Prepayment.

7. BORROWER'S FAILURE TO PAY AS REQUIRED

(A) Late Charges for Overdue Payments

If the Note Holder has not received the full amount of any monthly payment by the end of fifteen (15) calendar days after the date it is due, I will pay a late charge to the Note Holder. The amount of the charge will be 5.000 % of my overdue payment of Principal and Interest. I will pay this late charge promptly but only once on each late payment.

(B) Default

If I do not pay the full amount of each monthly payment on the date it is due, I will be in default.

(C) Notice of Default

If I am in default, the Note Holder may send me a written notice telling me that if I do not pay the overdue amount by a certain date, the Note Holder may require me to pay immediately the full amount of Principal that has not been paid and all the interest that I owe on that amount. The date must be at least 30 days after the date on which the notice is mailed to me or delivered by other means.

(D) No Waiver By Note Holder

Even if, at a time when I am in default, the Note Holder does not require me to pay immediately in full as described above, the Note Holder will still have the right to do so if I am in default at a later time.

(E) Payment of Note Holder's Costs and Expenses

If the Note Holder has required me to pay immediately in full as described above, the Note Holder will have the right to be paid back by me for all of its costs and expenses in enforcing this Note to the extent not prohibited by applicable law. These expenses include, for example, reasonable attorneys' fees.

8. GIVING OF NOTICES

Unless applicable law requires a different method, any notice that must be given to me under this Note will be given by delivering it or by mailing it by first class mail to me at the Property Address above or at a different address if I give the Note Holder a notice of my different address.

Unless the Note Holder requires a different method, any notice that must be given to the Note Holder under this Note will be given by delivering it or by mailing it by first class mail to the Note Holder at the address stated in Section 3(A) above or at a different address if I am given a notice of that different address.

9. OBLIGATIONS OF PERSONS UNDER THIS NOTE

If more than one person signs this Note, each person is fully and personally obligated to keep all the promises made in this Note, including the promise to pay the full amount owed. Any person who is a guarantor, surety or endorser of this Note is also obligated to do these things. Any person who takes over these obligations, including the obligations of a guarantor, surety or endorser of this Note, is also obligated to keep all the promises made in this Note. The Note Holder may enforce its rights under this Note against each person individually or against all of us together. This means that any one of us may be required to pay all the amounts owed under this Note.

10. WAIVERS

I and any other person who has obligations under this Note waive the rights of Presentment and Notice of Dishonor. "Presentment" means the right to require the Note Holder to demand payment of amounts due. "Notice of Dishonor" means the right to require the Note Holder to give notice to other persons that amounts due have not been paid.

11. SECURED NOTE

In addition to the protections given to the Note Holder under this Note, a Mortgage, Deed of Trust, or Security Deed (the "Security Instrument"), dated the same date as this Note, protects the Note Holder from possible losses that might result if I do not keep the promises that I make in this Note. That Security Instrument describes how and under what conditions I may be required to make immediate payment in full of all amounts I owe under this Note. Some of these conditions are described as follows:

Transfer of the Property or a Beneficial Interest in Borrower. As used in this Section 18, "Interest in the Property" means any legal or beneficial interest in the Property, including, but not limited to, those beneficial interests transferred in a bond for deed, contract for deed, installment sales contract or escrow agreement, the intent of which is the transfer of title by Borrower at a future date to a purchaser.

If all or any part of the Property or any Interest in the Property is sold or transferred (or if Borrower is not a natural person and a beneficial interest in Borrower is sold or transferred) without Lender's prior written consent, Lender may require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument. However, this option shall not be exercised by Lender if such exercise is prohibited by Applicable Law. Lender also shall not exercise this option if: (a) Borrower causes to be submitted to Lender information required by Lender to evaluate the intended transferee as if a new loan were being made to the transferee; and (b) Lender reasonably determines that Lender's security will not be impaired by the loan assumption and that the risk of a breach of any covenant or agreement in this Security Instrument is acceptable to Lender.

To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, Lender may charge a reasonable fee as a condition to Lender's consent to the loan assumption. Lender may also require the transferee to sign an assumption agreement that is acceptable to Lender and that obligates the transferee to keep all the promises and agreements made in the Note and in this Security Instrument. Borrower will continue to be obligated under the Note and this Security Instrument unless Lender releases Borrower in writing.

If Lender exercises the option to require immediate payment in full, Lender shall give Borrower notice of acceleration. The notice shall provide a period of not less than 30 days from the date the notice is given in accordance with Section 15 within which Borrower must pay all sums secured by this Security Instrument. If Borrower fails to pay these sums prior to the expiration of this period, Lender may invoke any remedies permitted by this Security Instrument without further notice or demand on Borrower.

PREPAYMENT PENALTY ADDENDUM

THIS PREPAYMENT PENALTY ADDENDUM is dated JULY 20, 2005, and is incorporated into and amends and supplements the Note of the same date (the "Note") given by MORTGAGE INVESTORS GROUP, A GENERAL PARTNERSHIP (the "Lender"). The Note is secured by a Mortgage or Deed of Trust or comparable security instrument (the "Security Instrument") covering the property (the "Property") identified in the Security Instrument.

The section of the Note entitled "Borrower's Right to Prepay" is replaced with the following new section:

BORROWER'S RIGHT TO PREPAY

I have the right to make payments of Principal at any time before they are due. A prepayment of all of the unpaid Principal is known as a "Full Prepayment." A prepayment of only part of the unpaid Principal is known as a "Partial Prepayment." When I make a Partial or Full Prepayment, I will tell the Note Holder in writing that I am doing so.

Subject to the Prepayment Penalty specified below, I may make a Full Prepayment or Partial Prepayments of my obligation. The Note Holder will use all of my prepayments to reduce the amount of Principal that I owe under the Note. If I make a Partial Prepayment, there will be no changes in the due date or in the amount of my monthly payment.

If within the first THIRTY-SIX months after the execution of this Note, I make prepayment(s), the total of which exceeds twenty (20) percent of the original Principal amount of this Note, I agree to pay a Prepayment Penalty in an amount equal to the payment of six (6) months' advance interest on the amount by which the total of my prepayment(s) during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the date of the prepayment exceeds twenty (20) percent of the original Principal amount of this Note. Interest will be calculated using the rate in effect at the time of prepayment. I will pay this Prepayment Penalty regardless of whether I sell the Property or refinance the loan with the same Lender or Note Holder.

All other terms and conditions of the above referenced Note remain in full force and effect.
